Profile of Ms. Tanaka. In short, a model performance" said Mr. Harris Goldsmith, a critic from New York Concert Review, about Yukiko's solo debut recital at Carnegie Weill Recital Hall held in December 2005.

A native of Tokyo, Japan, Yukiko Tanaka has been active as a piano soloist and a chamber musician and has performed in the United States, Canada, Spain, Italy, and Japan. Yukiko received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Music from Albion College, where she won many honors, scholarships, and the College Concerto Competition. Yukiko continues her studies with Maestro German Diez after completing her Master's degree in piano performance at the City University of New York Brooklyn College, where she was a scholarship student.
